

INTEREST CENTERS IN COMING OF MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA TO EL PASO THE COMING WEEK

By RUTH MONRO AUGUR.

EL PASOANS, who enjoy music of the very highest class, have a treat in store this week, in the three performances of the Minneapolis symphony orchestra, which will be here Tuesday night, Wednesday night and Wednesday matinee. Adding interest to the coming of this famous orchestra is the return to El Paso of Miss Margarette Buckler, 73, soloist with the orchestra. Miss Buckler is an El Paso girl, the daughter of Mrs. C. N. Buckler, a pioneer resident of El Paso. Needless to say, she is very well known here and will be given a loyal welcome.

Miss Buckler is in private life Mrs. Margarette Buckler Stevenson. She has sung in concert at a number of occasions here and has been most favorably received.

Home makers, both men and women, will be interested in the program on sanitation, to be presented by the civic department of the Women's club, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in the club building on Mesa avenue. Dr. C. C. Pierce, who is the senior U. S. public health officer here on the border, will speak on sanitation. W. M. Martin, of the Rockefeller Foundation, will discuss the national problem from the health standpoint. Mrs. A. S. J. Elyer will talk on home economics from the health standpoint. Mrs. Carl Lee Smith, the chairman of the civic department, will be in charge of the program for the afternoon.

The City Federation of Women will meet Monday afternoon, in the Knights of Pythias hall. The annual election of officers will be held and an interesting program, followed by a social time, will conclude the afternoon.

The El Paso Equal Franchise league will start out its new year under its new officers Thursday afternoon, meeting in the chamber of commerce, at 2 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon the Pan-Hellenic society will give a luncheon for all members of university and college fraternities, in the tea room on Montana street. A brief business meeting will be held, preceding the luncheon. This society is for the purpose of gathering from all the sororities represented among the university alumni of El Paso.

Two weddings will interest people this week. The first to occur is the marriage of Miss Charlotte May Rickson, of Mesilla Park, to William E. Tuttle, of El Paso. The wedding is set for Wednesday evening, to be solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tuttle, in Sunset Heights.

Miss Rose Stolaroff and Harold Potash will be married on Saturday, in the private dining room of Hotel Paso del Norte. A wedding reception will be held later in the evening for all the friends of the couple. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stolaroff, and is a native of El Paso. Both Miss Stolaroff and Mr. Potash are graduates of the University of Texas.

Mrs. D. E. Gibson, of Canon City, Colo., who is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Hiner, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given Monday morning by Mrs. Hines, in the Woman's club building.

Mrs. J. T. Woods will entertain the Jolly Wednesday club, Tuesday afternoon. The same time Mrs. A. J. Fullan will be the hostess for the meeting of the Luncheon Bridge club, Mrs. D. C. Hill will entertain the Tuesday Luncheon club.

Mrs. J. Monroe Proctor will be the hostess for the members of the Wednesday Bridge club.

Mrs. Charles Reese is to entertain the members of the I. H. House To Tell club the same afternoon.

Mrs. John Reese will have as her guests the State Flower Library and Country club, Wednesday.

The Wednesday Embroidery club meets this week with Mrs. Charles Heidrich.

Mrs. Fred G. Schwenker entertains the Least 500 club, Wednesday.

The Jolly Wives club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Hofer, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. Page will be the hostess for the meeting of the Jolly 500 club, Thursday afternoon.

The Sempire Felix club meets the same afternoon, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Frost.

The Idle Wives club has for its hostess, Mrs. John Cooper and the Thursday evening club will be entertained by Mrs. W. G. Roe.

Miss Katherine Harlo will entertain the Jolly Eight Room club, Saturday afternoon.

There will be the usual dance through the week, Wednesday night, in the officers' club; the forty-third annual dance of the El Paso country club, Thursday night; the West Yuleta Country club's weekly dance, same evening; and the El Paso Country club's dance, Saturday night.

One of the pleasing events of the week ahead will be the reception, to be given by Mrs. A. Schwartz, on Wednesday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at her attractive new home, 1201 Mesa avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ward have moved to their new bungalow home at 1404 North St. Vain street.

Christopher Allen, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin, fell at his home, 2221 Montana street, Saturday morning and broke both bones in his right arm.

Mrs. W. S. Tilton has rented her home on Mountain avenue and will be for the present at the home of Mr. E. R. Thompson, 101 Boulevard. Lieut. and Mrs. Jarvis M. Blair, of the medical reserve corps, have taken Mrs. Tilton's home for the winter.

Dr. Stephen A. Spencer, president of the Illinois Central Railway hospital, in Chicago, Dr. Scherer, the chief of Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Schuster, of El Paso. He graduated from the Rush Medical college of Chicago last spring.

Mrs. Eleanor O. Spencer, president of the Texas division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, has reappointed Mrs. C. E. Bryan as a committee member of the Cunningham Monument fund of the state U. D. C. Mrs. Hal Greer, of Laredo, is the chairman.

Leonard West has returned from a three days trip to Columbus, N. M. Mrs. Benjamin M. Cowart, of Fairbairn, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Zach Lamar Cobb. Mrs. Cowart will be here for a week. She will remember Mrs. Sarah Cobb, a former El Paso girl.

New Spring Styles in Footwear. Right now, early in the season, we want you to get acquainted with us. Advanced Spring styles in footwear are now being displayed. You will be interested not only in the beautiful styles we show but in the money saving prices at which these stylish shoes are offered. We are conveniently located to El Paso's Shopping Center, yet we are out of the "High Rent" district.

Zeilmann's Sample Shoe Store. Joe Zeilmann, Proprietor, 165 S. Stanton St. Advertisement.

Superfluous hair, moles and all facial blemishes removed. Features corrected. Miss Grace A. Benson, Face Specialist, 25 Buckler Bldg.—Adv.

Ladies—Do not miss seeing our new creations in Spring Millinery now on display at J. W. Hale, 416 N. Ore. St. Out of the high rent district; lower prices.—Adv.

All the newest style corsets at popular prices, from $1.00 up. We please you. The Corset Shop, 294 Texas St.—Adv.

HELPING THE "Y" FUND

The large clock, 14 feet square, erected upon the north face of the Sheldon hotel, which registers day by day the progress of the Y. W. C. A. $100,000 building fund campaign. Inserted by Mr. and Mrs. James G. McNary, whose contribution to the Y. W. C. A. fund caused the large hand of the clock to advance $5000. It has been the largest contribution from residents of El Paso to the association fund.

Younger School Crowd Has a Jolly Friday Night Dance

French frock of pale pink silk, with a big pink mullin bow on her left wrist and white slippers, tied with pink ribbons.

Miss Mabelle Mass, in a Turkish costume of yellow trousers and bolero and white blouse, with a headpiece of black and silver, danced to the music of the "Glowworm." As an encore she gave a Hawaiian dance.

Miss Katherine Griffith danced a fantastic Russian polka. She wore a ballet costume of pale green silk. Miss Dible, Paesett, accompanied her dancing on the piano.

Funch was served during the evening and the affair was most successful in every way.

Misses Margaret Hansen, Elizabeth Kuhlmann and Lola Bushong gave a dance Friday night, at the home of the former, on Morenci street. The rooms were decorated with American flags.

Funch was served between the dances and later an ice cream course was enjoyed. Mrs. H. P. Hansen, Mrs. M. Thompson, Miss Kate Hanter, who were of the girls, Frances Clayton, Virginia Clayton, Leola Clayton, Anna Carson, Helen DeWitt, Ruth Dewey, Doris Little, Caroline Moreau, Lily Satorius, Vinetta Lindner, Anita Robbe, and the boys were Harold Stark, Wm. Wilson, Jim Gantt, R. Brown, Will Wilson, James Gantt, R. Brown, Will Leeper, E. Lewis, Leola Ballard, Gay Thompson, Barton Schneider, Snyder, Eugene Denning, Harry Adams, L. Adkins, Osborne Carson, W. Rice, Tom Hansen and Dan Crockett.

Dinners, Luncheons, Teas. Mrs. Stacey Carkhuff, of Arkon, Ohio, who is the guest of honor at an informal luncheon, given Friday by her hostess, Mrs. S. A. Thompson, at her home in the Cole apartments.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson entertained with a pretty breakfast Friday, at the tea room on Montana street, in honor of her sister, Miss Sarah Davis of Gainesville, Tex. Freshies, narcissus blossoms and ferns filled silver vases decorating the table. Dainty breakfast cups were the favors.

The guests were Misses Davis, Sarah Rodgers, Birdie Alexander, Georgia Adine Bradford, Evelyn Vossell, Emily Kemp, Angela Leeper, Sue Crombie, Horrellia Buckner, Carter Rudy, Medames W. W. Turner, T. N. Jones, Maury Kemp, J. W. Crowder, E. L. Lamer, R. L. Ramey, and Josephine Nations Morfit.

The Army. Lieut. and Mrs. Henry R. Lewis will leave February 29 for San Francisco, where they will sail for Honolulu. Lieut. Lewis has been transferred to the First Infantry, which is stationed in the Hawaiian Islands.

Let Us Fill the Prescription. When you need medicine, bring your doctor's prescription right to us. At any one of our three stores you can always count on obtaining the best medicine that can be produced from pure, fresh, first quality drugs. We give prescriptions our most careful attention and see that every phase of the work is done with the utmost thoroughness and accuracy. Let us fill the prescription.

Scott White & Co., Safety First Druggists, Mills Bldg., Roberts-Banner Bldg., Depot Pharmacy. Advertisement.

Our many styles of Engraved Wedding Announcements, Invitations, and Visiting Cards will please the most particular. Come in and see us. El Paso Printing Co., 108 Main St.—Adv.

Why Not? See the new Japanese novelties in trays, bowls, baskets, etc. Beach's Art Shop, City Nat'l Bank Bldg.—Adv.

ENJOY YOURSELF Campbell's Cafe—Music, Dancing—Advertisement.

Turn Your Blue Mondays Into Sunny Monday By Using Sunny Monday Bluing

Fancy dances, in costume, were delightful features of the dance, given Friday night, by the young women's club of the Prospect, in the Knights of Columbus hall. The affair was for the benefit of the building fund of St. Patrick's cathedral. The young women of the sodality, who were the arrangement committee for this affair, received the guests, Miss K. McNary was the chairman and her assistants were Misses Catherine Passett, Dixie Passett, Christine Moelich, Nell Halaby and May Dugens. The patronesses were Medames D. P. Beckham, George Denton, L. J. Mundy, W. E. Fryer, J. E. Morgan, C. W. Passett, and John E. Farnsworth. There were about 200 guests at the dance.

Miss Christine Moelich danced "La Jota" in a Spanish costume of red and yellow skirt, black velvet bolero, over white blouse and red and yellow cap. Little Blanche Schall danced a "French Polk" dance. She wore a dainty

French frock of pale pink silk, with a big pink mullin bow on her left wrist and white slippers, tied with pink ribbons.

Miss Mabelle Mass, in a Turkish costume of yellow trousers and bolero and white blouse, with a headpiece of black and silver, danced to the music of the "Glowworm." As an encore she gave a Hawaiian dance.

Miss Katherine Griffith danced a fantastic Russian polka. She wore a ballet costume of pale green silk. Miss Dible, Paesett, accompanied her dancing on the piano.

Funch was served during the evening and the affair was most successful in every way.

Misses Margaret Hansen, Elizabeth Kuhlmann and Lola Bushong gave a dance Friday night, at the home of the former, on Morenci street. The rooms were decorated with American flags.

Funch was served between the dances and later an ice cream course was enjoyed. Mrs. H. P. Hansen, Mrs. M. Thompson, Miss Kate Hanter, who were of the girls, Frances Clayton, Virginia Clayton, Leola Clayton, Anna Carson, Helen DeWitt, Ruth Dewey, Doris Little, Caroline Moreau, Lily Satorius, Vinetta Lindner, Anita Robbe, and the boys were Harold Stark, Wm. Wilson, Jim Gantt, R. Brown, Will Wilson, James Gantt, R. Brown, Will Leeper, E. Lewis, Leola Ballard, Gay Thompson, Barton Schneider, Snyder, Eugene Denning, Harry Adams, L. Adkins, Osborne Carson, W. Rice, Tom Hansen and Dan Crockett.

Dinners, Luncheons, Teas. Mrs. Stacey Carkhuff, of Arkon, Ohio, who is the guest of honor at an informal luncheon, given Friday by her hostess, Mrs. S. A. Thompson, at her home in the Cole apartments.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson entertained with a pretty breakfast Friday, at the tea room on Montana street, in honor of her sister, Miss Sarah Davis of Gainesville, Tex. Freshies, narcissus blossoms and ferns filled silver vases decorating the table. Dainty breakfast cups were the favors.

The guests were Misses Davis, Sarah Rodgers, Birdie Alexander, Georgia Adine Bradford, Evelyn Vossell, Emily Kemp, Angela Leeper, Sue Crombie, Horrellia Buckner, Carter Rudy, Medames W. W. Turner, T. N. Jones, Maury Kemp, J. W. Crowder, E. L. Lamer, R. L. Ramey, and Josephine Nations Morfit.

The Army. Lieut. and Mrs. Henry R. Lewis will leave February 29 for San Francisco, where they will sail for Honolulu. Lieut. Lewis has been transferred to the First Infantry, which is stationed in the Hawaiian Islands.

Let Us Fill the Prescription. When you need medicine, bring your doctor's prescription right to us. At any one of our three stores you can always count on obtaining the best medicine that can be produced from pure, fresh, first quality drugs. We give prescriptions our most careful attention and see that every phase of the work is done with the utmost thoroughness and accuracy. Let us fill the prescription.

Scott White & Co., Safety First Druggists, Mills Bldg., Roberts-Banner Bldg., Depot Pharmacy. Advertisement.

Our many styles of Engraved Wedding Announcements, Invitations, and Visiting Cards will please the most particular. Come in and see us. El Paso Printing Co., 108 Main St.—Adv.

Why Not? See the new Japanese novelties in trays, bowls, baskets, etc. Beach's Art Shop, City Nat'l Bank Bldg.—Adv.

ENJOY YOURSELF Campbell's Cafe—Music, Dancing—Advertisement.

Turn Your Blue Mondays Into Sunny Monday By Using Sunny Monday Bluing

Cards.

A bridge party will be given by the El Paso chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, on the afternoon of Feb. 2, in the U. D. C. room of the women's club building.

Mrs. D. C. Hill entertained the members of the Friday Bridge club at her home in the Branson apartments, Friday afternoon. There were no guests present, other than the members. Mrs. F. J. Feldman won the first prize, and Mrs. Frank E. Hunter the second. The club will meet next week with Mrs. O. S. Osborn, on Newman street.

The meeting of the Friday Luncheon Bridge club, which was to have taken place Friday at the home of Mrs. Leo Schuster, has been postponed until next week, when Mrs. Schuster will be the hostess.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent Friday, by the members of the Daughters of Erin and their friends, at the monthly social of this order, in the Knights of Columbus hall. High five, bridge and 500 games entertained the guests and there were 16 tables of players. Mrs. Joseph H. Huxthal won the high score prize in bridge. Mrs. F. T. Strother won the prize for the 500 game. Mrs. P. F. Freeman won the high score prize in high five. Miss Kate James won the guest prize. The committee in charge was composed of Mesdames H. B. Hannah, J. T. Harris, J. Gorman and M. Griens. An ice course was served after the games. Those present in addition to the committee and prize winners, were Mesdames Fred G. Schwenker, W. W. Lissett, P. R. DeCoursey, Earl Mason, Miss Freeman, J. Thornhill, Mary Keating, A. Work, R. Gahurst, J. Spellman, B. Williamson, N. B. LaRock, William Hannah Crowley, C. Gagnier, M. Mick, J. E. Abbott, William Wallace, E. Clifford, J. T. Grant, Howard P. Deady, Julia Burk, G. H. Bussing, J. M. Barnes, J. J. Haas, E. J. Haas, E. J. Bartholomew, J. R. Carver, J. Chomoll, P. E. Kelly, C. W. Fassett, J. H. Morrell, J. D. Cook, C. Leonard, L. A. Houston, C. M. Cunningham, Edward

C. Hitchcock, Ralph V. Davis, W. L. Wilson, V. A. Puett, Charles Heidrich, A. E. Mackie, C. W. Grimes, Frank D. Reuten, G. Hustel, Misses Kate James, Alma Savary, Margarette Goering, Henry Welch, Julia Gallagher, Mary Monk, Alma Meade and A. Fairhurst.

FURS

REDUCED PRICES FOR REMODELING NOW

ALASKA FUR CO.

29-30 Buckler Bldg. Phone 1670. Over Elite.

THE THOMAS SCHOOL

216 MESA AVE. Regular school work for pupils of the first eight grades. Personal instruction in all grammar-grade, high-school and college branches.

VIRGINIA THOMAS, Principal.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS

EVERYBODY'S BLDG. Mezzanine Floor

Downtown Depot

Beginning Monday, Jan. 29 we will operate a downtown Depot at

207 Mills St (Next to Orndorff Hotel)

This is for the convenience of patrons for both Laundry and Cleaning.

On either "Special" or regular work bundles can be left at the downtown depot and you will be assured of satisfactory Service.

EL PASO LAUNDRY

Tel. 470

Our many styles of Engraved Wedding Announcements, Invitations, and Visiting Cards will please the most particular. Come in and see us. El Paso Printing Co., 108 Main St.—Adv.

Why Not? See the new Japanese novelties in trays, bowls, baskets, etc. Beach's Art Shop, City Nat'l Bank Bldg.—Adv.

ENJOY YOURSELF Campbell's Cafe—Music, Dancing—Advertisement.

Turn Your Blue Mondays Into Sunny Monday By Using Sunny Monday Bluing

Fancy dances, in costume, were delightful features of the dance, given Friday night, by the young women's club of the Prospect, in the Knights of Columbus hall. The affair was for the benefit of the building fund of St. Patrick's cathedral. The young women of the sodality, who were the arrangement committee for this affair, received the guests, Miss K. McNary was the chairman and her assistants were Misses Catherine Passett, Dixie Passett, Christine Moelich, Nell Halaby and May Dugens. The patronesses were Medames D. P. Beckham, George Denton, L. J. Mundy, W. E. Fryer, J. E. Morgan, C. W. Passett, and John E. Farnsworth. There were about 200 guests at the dance.

Miss Christine Moelich danced "La Jota" in a Spanish costume of red and yellow skirt, black velvet bolero, over white blouse and red and yellow cap. Little Blanche Schall danced a "French Polk" dance. She wore a dainty

French frock of pale pink silk, with a big pink mullin bow on her left wrist and white slippers, tied with pink ribbons.

Miss Mabelle Mass, in a Turkish costume of yellow trousers and bolero and white blouse, with a headpiece of black and silver, danced to the music of the "Glowworm." As an encore she gave a Hawaiian dance.

Miss Katherine Griffith danced a fantastic Russian polka. She wore a ballet costume of pale green silk. Miss Dible, Paesett, accompanied her dancing on the piano.

Funch was served during the evening and the affair was most successful in every way.

Misses Margaret Hansen, Elizabeth Kuhlmann and Lola Bushong gave a dance Friday night, at the home of the former, on Morenci street. The rooms were decorated with American flags.

Funch was served between the dances and later an ice cream course was enjoyed. Mrs. H. P. Hansen, Mrs. M. Thompson, Miss Kate Hanter, who were of the girls, Frances Clayton, Virginia Clayton, Leola Clayton, Anna Carson, Helen DeWitt, Ruth Dewey, Doris Little, Caroline Moreau, Lily Satorius, Vinetta Lindner, Anita Robbe, and the boys were Harold Stark, Wm. Wilson, Jim Gantt, R. Brown, Will Wilson, James Gantt, R. Brown, Will Leeper, E. Lewis, Leola Ballard, Gay Thompson, Barton Schneider, Snyder, Eugene Denning, Harry Adams, L. Adkins, Osborne Carson, W. Rice, Tom Hansen and Dan Crockett.

Dinners, Luncheons, Teas. Mrs. Stacey Carkhuff, of Arkon, Ohio, who is the guest of honor at an informal luncheon, given Friday by her hostess, Mrs. S. A. Thompson, at her home in the Cole apartments.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson entertained with a pretty breakfast Friday, at the tea room on Montana street, in honor of her sister, Miss Sarah Davis of Gainesville, Tex. Freshies, narcissus blossoms and ferns filled silver vases decorating the table. Dainty breakfast cups were the favors.

The guests were Misses Davis, Sarah Rodgers, Birdie Alexander, Georgia Adine Bradford, Evelyn Vossell, Emily Kemp, Angela Leeper, Sue Crombie, Horrellia Buckner, Carter Rudy, Medames W. W. Turner, T. N. Jones, Maury Kemp, J. W. Crowder, E. L. Lamer, R. L. Ramey, and Josephine Nations Morfit.

The Army. Lieut. and Mrs. Henry R. Lewis will leave February 29 for San Francisco, where they will sail for Honolulu. Lieut. Lewis has been transferred to the First Infantry, which is stationed in the Hawaiian Islands.

Let Us Fill the Prescription. When you need medicine, bring your doctor's prescription right to us. At any one of our three stores you can always count on obtaining the best medicine that can be produced from pure, fresh, first quality drugs. We give prescriptions our most careful attention and see that every phase of the work is done with the utmost thoroughness and accuracy. Let us fill the prescription.

Scott White & Co., Safety First Druggists, Mills Bldg., Roberts-Banner Bldg., Depot Pharmacy. Advertisement.

Our many styles of Engraved Wedding Announcements, Invitations, and Visiting Cards will please the most particular. Come in and see us. El Paso Printing Co., 108 Main St.—Adv.

Why Not? See the new Japanese novelties in trays, bowls, baskets, etc. Beach's Art Shop, City Nat'l Bank Bldg.—Adv.

ENJOY YOURSELF Campbell's Cafe—Music, Dancing—Advertisement.

Turn Your Blue Mondays Into Sunny Monday By Using Sunny Monday Bluing

Fancy dances, in costume, were delightful features of the dance, given Friday night, by the young women's club of the Prospect, in the Knights of Columbus hall. The affair was for the benefit of the building fund of St. Patrick's cathedral. The young women of the sodality, who were the arrangement committee for this affair, received the guests, Miss K. McNary was the chairman and her assistants were Misses Catherine Passett, Dixie Passett, Christine Moelich, Nell Halaby and May Dugens. The patronesses were Medames D. P. Beckham, George Denton, L. J. Mundy, W. E. Fryer, J. E. Morgan, C. W. Passett, and John E. Farnsworth. There were about 200 guests at the dance.

Miss Christine Moelich danced "La Jota" in a Spanish costume of red and yellow skirt, black velvet bolero, over white blouse and red and yellow cap. Little Blanche Schall danced a "French Polk" dance. She wore a dainty

French frock of pale pink silk, with a big pink mullin bow on her left wrist and white slippers, tied with pink ribbons.

Miss Mabelle Mass, in a Turkish costume of yellow trousers and bolero and white blouse, with a headpiece of black and silver, danced to the music of the "Glowworm." As an encore she gave a Hawaiian dance.

Miss Katherine Griffith danced a fantastic Russian polka. She wore a ballet costume of pale green silk. Miss Dible, Paesett, accompanied her dancing on the piano.

Funch was served during the evening and the affair was most successful in every way.

Misses Margaret Hansen, Elizabeth Kuhlmann and Lola Bushong gave a dance Friday night, at the home of the former, on Morenci street. The rooms were decorated with American flags.

Funch was served between the dances and later an ice cream course was enjoyed. Mrs. H. P. Hansen, Mrs. M. Thompson, Miss Kate Hanter, who were of the girls, Frances Clayton, Virginia Clayton, Leola Clayton, Anna Carson, Helen DeWitt, Ruth Dewey, Doris Little, Caroline Moreau, Lily Satorius, Vinetta Lindner, Anita Robbe, and the boys were Harold Stark, Wm. Wilson, Jim Gantt, R. Brown, Will Wilson, James Gantt, R. Brown, Will Leeper, E. Lewis, Leola Ballard, Gay Thompson, Barton Schneider, Snyder, Eugene Denning, Harry Adams, L. Adkins, Osborne Carson, W. Rice, Tom Hansen and Dan Crockett.

Dinners, Luncheons, Teas. Mrs. Stacey Carkhuff, of Arkon, Ohio, who is the guest of honor at an informal luncheon, given Friday by her hostess, Mrs. S. A. Thompson, at her home in the Cole apartments.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson entertained with a pretty breakfast Friday, at the tea room on Montana street, in honor of her sister, Miss Sarah Davis of Gainesville, Tex. Freshies, narcissus blossoms and ferns filled silver vases decorating the table. Dainty breakfast cups were the favors.

The guests were Misses Davis, Sarah Rodgers, Birdie Alexander, Georgia Adine Bradford, Evelyn Vossell, Emily Kemp, Angela Leeper, Sue Crombie, Horrellia Buckner, Carter Rudy, Medames W. W. Turner, T. N. Jones, Maury Kemp, J. W. Crowder, E. L. Lamer, R. L. Ramey, and Josephine Nations Morfit.

The Army. Lieut. and Mrs. Henry R. Lewis will leave February 29 for San Francisco, where they will sail for Honolulu. Lieut. Lewis has been transferred to the First Infantry, which is stationed in the Hawaiian Islands.

Let Us Fill the Prescription. When you need medicine, bring your doctor's prescription right to us. At any one of our three stores you can always count on obtaining the best medicine that can be produced from pure, fresh, first quality drugs. We give prescriptions our most careful attention and see that every phase of the work is done with the utmost thoroughness and accuracy. Let us fill the prescription.

Scott White & Co., Safety First Druggists, Mills Bldg., Roberts-Banner Bldg., Depot Pharmacy. Advertisement.

Our many styles of Engraved Wedding Announcements, Invitations, and Visiting Cards will please the most particular. Come in and see us. El Paso Printing Co., 108 Main St.—Adv.

Why Not? See the new Japanese novelties in trays, bowls, baskets, etc. Beach's Art Shop, City Nat'l Bank Bldg.—Adv.

ENJOY YOURSELF Campbell's Cafe—Music, Dancing—Advertisement.

Turn Your Blue Mondays Into Sunny Monday By Using Sunny Monday Bluing

Fancy dances, in costume, were delightful features of the dance, given Friday night, by the young women's club of the Prospect, in the Knights of Columbus hall. The affair was for the benefit of the building fund of St. Patrick's cathedral. The young women of the sodality, who were the arrangement committee for this affair, received the guests, Miss K. McNary was the chairman and her assistants were Misses Catherine Passett, Dixie Passett, Christine Moelich, Nell Halaby and May Dugens. The patronesses were Medames D. P. Beckham, George Denton, L. J. Mundy, W. E. Fryer, J. E. Morgan, C. W. Passett, and John E. Farnsworth. There were about 200 guests at the dance.

Miss Christine Moelich danced "La Jota" in a Spanish costume of red and yellow skirt, black velvet bolero, over white blouse and red and yellow cap. Little Blanche Schall danced a "French Polk" dance. She wore a dainty

French frock of pale pink silk, with a big pink mullin bow on her left wrist and white slippers, tied with pink ribbons.

Miss Mabelle Mass, in a Turkish costume of yellow trousers and bolero and white blouse, with a headpiece of black and silver, danced to the music of the "Glowworm." As an encore she gave a Hawaiian dance.

Miss Katherine Griffith danced a fantastic Russian polka. She wore a ballet costume of pale green silk. Miss Dible, Paesett, accompanied her dancing on the piano.

Funch was served during the evening and the affair was most successful in every way.